Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

(a) On June 14, 2022, the Bylaws of Old Dominion Electric Cooperative were amended with an effective date of June 14, 2022. The material change relates to the addition of Article 13 – Emergency Bylaws. The amendments support the ability of the Board and Executive Committee to manage the business during periods when a quorum of either the Board or the Executive Committee cannot readily be assembled due to the interruption of regular methods of communications because of some catastrophic event, including modifying notice and quorum requirements of duly called meetings and providing the authority to take action during such periods.
